RALLY DEMOCRATS !!

Speaking at Lagrange !!

To-day (Monday), 17th instant, Hon. Hamilton Pope and George Baker, of this city, will address the Democracy of Oldham county at Lagrange. We are the friends of McClellan and Pendleton and the principles of conservative Democracy to attend the meeting at Lagrange, and hear discussed the important issues of the Presidential contest.

Really Democrats!

GOING HOME.—Some time since the rebels made a raid into East Tennessee, some twenty miles above Knoxville. Families were driven from their rude, yet (to them) comfortable homes, and their property destroyed. One of these families arrived in this city on Saturday night, consisting of a mother and seven children, the eldest about twelve years of age and the youngest about three months old. Being strangers and in a destitute condition, they were compelled to lie on the pavement at the Frankfort depot all night. The little ones, shivering with cold and pale from hunger, nestled around their mother's form, while every effort seemed strained to keep her little babe from being chilled to death by the merciless night winds. Officer Tiller and others discovered them at an early hour yesterday morning, and gave them all the aid and assistance they could. The poor woman said she wanted to go to Lexington, where she had friends and relatives who would take care of her, and the generous conductor on the special train to Lexington put the entire group on the train and took them to that city free of charge. These gentlemen deserve praise for their manifestations of kindness towards the poor unfortunate woman and her helpless little ones. She has a husband and son now in the Federal army. She has also a son who was captured, and is in a Southern prison, and she has a son killed in battle about four weeks since nobly defending his country's flag. When the abolition torch-light procession passed by her on Saturday night, and she was told what it was, she buried her face in her hands and wept like a child, until they passed out of her sight.

JEFFERSON CRIMINAL COURT—CRIMINAL CASES POSTPONED.—The regular term of the Jefferson Circuit Court, Hon. F. B. Murl, presiding, will commence to-day. Owing to the criminal cases will all be postponed until the 21st of November. The criminal docket will, however, be called, and those who have given bonds to answer at this term of the courts will have to present and renew their bonds. The civil docket of the court will, we learn, be called.

BAHRACK'S NO. 1.—Business was rather active at the barracks yesterday, notwithstanding it was the Sabbath day. One hundred and seventy-seven new recruits arrived from Springfield, seventy-five from Columbus, and two hundred and seventy-eight substitutes and drafted men from Jackson, Michigan. Eight recruits were sent to Detroit, two to Huron, seven to Nashville, five hundred and fifteen conscripts to same place, and sixty to Lexington.

CHARGE OF RAPE.—Saturday morning August Clayton, an old gray-headed man, probably over fifty years of age, was presented before the Police Court upon the charge of committing a rape upon Belle Burdine, a little girl ten years of age, who resides in the lower portion of the city. The facts connected with this inhuman outrage are too horrible to relate. Clayton was arrested by officer Charles Glass. He will have a hearing before Judge Johnson.

BROOM FACTORY.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that a broom factory has been started on Bellitt street. Mr. Eagle manufactures excellent brooms, and we trust that he will receive a good share of patronage. This is an enterprise which has long been much needed here, and now there will be no necessity for our merchants sending to other States for their supply of brooms.

REFRESHMENTS AT THE RACES.—Meers, Cawell & Co., of the famous Walker's Exchange, have opened a branch of their establishment on the race course, which will be well supplied with everything to eat and drink during the present week. The smiling John Kolbep will be there to superintend things.

SHOT.—On Saturday night, as the Lincoln torchlight procession was passing up or down Broadway, a soldier, whose name we did not learn, was shot in the head by some one on one of the Government wagons—which made the greater part of the "grand" affair published in the posters and play cards.

WE direct the attention of our lady readers to the advertisement of Mr. Dingfelder & Goldman. They keep a large stock of fashionable cloaks of every variety and description. They keep a fine assortment of dry goods also, to which they invite the attention of the public.

During the week ending Saturday the fines imposed in the Police Court amounted to two hundred dollars, one hundred and fifteen of which was for drunkenness. The amount has been paid into the treasury by Mr. Tompkins, the clerk.

The United States Court, Judge Baldwin presiding, met at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, and adjourned without transacting any business of importance. The court meets again on Thursday week.

The Military Commission are still engaged in investigating the charges against Dr. Benson. This case will no doubt occupy a week or ten days yet.

Thanks to the attentive messengers of the Adams Express Company for favors.

THE RACES SATURDAY.

The regular running season over the Woodlawn Course closed on Saturday with a handicap race, mile heats, for all ages. The meeting has been a success and the sport sue. The track, under the care of the energetic superintendent, was in excellent condition each day, and the different purses were well contested for by some of the finest horses in the State. For the four-mile race there was but one entry—John Harper's "Rhenodine," by Wagner, who walked over the course and took the purse—$100.

For the handicap race there were two entries—"Lucy Dudley" and "J. A. Holton." On Friday night the former was the favorite at odds, but on Saturday morning the betting changed, and "Holton" became the favorite at two to one. At the start for the first heat they got off side and side, and ran locked to the quarter-pole, which was passed in 36 seconds. On the back stretch "Holton" opens a gap on the mare, and when half-pole is reached, in 55 seconds, "Holton" is two lengths ahead. Down the home stretch the mare is urged forward, but the horse is too fast, and comes in winner of the heat in 1:30.

The betting now was one hundred to five for the second heat, but before reaching the quarter-pole "Holton" takes the lead, and from that point he continues to open the gap on the mare, coming in an easy winner of the heat and purse in 1:40%, "Lucy Dudley" distanced. The following is the result:

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.

Judge Advocate Holt's report upon the testimony gathered by him concerning the treasonable secret societies formed in loyal States as adjuncts to the rebellion is published.

The intelligence of the previous day shows that the report is treasonable and enunciates societies bearing various titles, such as Mutual Protection Society, Circle of Honor, Circle of Knights, Circle of Loyalty, Circle of the God of War, Circle of Defense, Superior Order of American Knights, Order of Sons of Liberty, Knights of the Order of Sons of Liberty, Peace Organization, Star Organization, American Organization, Democratic Journal, City Club, Scientific Reading Room, and McCollum Minnie Men.

The latter title is the one borne by a secret political association in the State of New York and other parts of the North. The Judge Holt report would seem to be a branch of the Order of American Knights, having substantially the same object to be accomplished, however, by means especially suited to the location in which it is established.

Colonel Stevens of the Association, Dr. T. Stevens, in June last to a reliable witness, whose testimony has been furnished, those who represent the McCollum interest are committed to a vigorous prosecution of the work in order to secure the popular sentiment and alure votes.

The McCollum minute men, as appear from a circular issued by the Chief Secretary at New York, are organized in military fashion similar to the order proper.

It is composed of companies—one for each election district—ten of whom constitutes a brigade, with a Brigadier General at its head. The whole is placed under a Commander-in-Chief.

The first Supreme Commander of the order was F. C. Wright, editor of the New York News, who was last May sent to Lafayette, Indiana, to recruit men for the cause. Colonel Holloway of Illinois was Lieutenant General and in Vallandigham's stead during the latter's absence from the country.

Colonel Saunders in his report on the progress of the rebellion expresses the opinion that his order was founded by Vallandigham during his confinement, upon consultation at Richmond with Davis and other prominent traitors. The order in Indiana boasts that the right of the slaves to freedom is the cause of the witness states positively that Jeff Davis is a member. The number belonging to the order has been variously estimated at from three hundred thousand to three hundred and fifty thousand.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.

A letter purporting to have been written by Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, the rebel Vice-President, in reply to a letter from several of his fellow citizens in the service of the rebellion, is published. He says no person more ardently desires an end to the war than he is, but it is not in his power to bring it to that end, and that he said the recognition of the independence of the States is the only solution of the trouble. The idea of maintaining the old Union, or any Union, is abominable to him.

By the arrival of the supply steamer from Pensacola and other Gulf ports have additional particulars of Gen. Aspinwall's expedition in Florida. He returned to Pensacola on the 14th inst., completely successful. He brought in over 900 prisoners, 400 negroes, 400 cattle, 400 miles, and a large amount of stores. He also received a supply of arms which will probably occasion the formation of an army.
